

Dear friends,

Happy New Year. May the year 2009 be filled with blessings for all of you.

May 2009 bring many good things to our two websites that we moderate and administrate together.

African Proverbs, Sayings and Stories Website

www.afriprov.org

Small Christian Communities Global Collaborative Website

www.smallchristiancommunities.org

For the past year the technical administrators on our coordinating teams have worked hard to get our two websites known and recognized on the major Search Engines. The hard work has borne fruit. I just did a search on both Google and Yahoo Search Engines and found:

On Google:

1. Entering the words "African Proverbs": Rank of our website is 1.
2. Entering the words "African Sayings": Rank is 1.
3. Entering the words "African Stories": Rank is 3. NOTE: No. 11 happens to be my book African Stories for Preachers and Teachers published by Paulines Publications Africa.
4. Entering the words "Small Christian Communities": Rank of our website is 1.

On Yahoo:

1. Entering the words "African Proverbs": Rank is 1.
2. Entering the words "African Sayings": Rank is 1
3. Entering the words "African Stories": Rank is 4.
4. Entering the words "Small Christian Communities": Rank is 1.

Thank you and congratulations to Sam, Nicholas and Charles!!!

Please pass the word to anyone who may be interested.

Peace,

Joe Healey
