

The new poll is on proverbs related to the World Cup in South Africa. To cast your vote go to <http://www.afriprov.org>

. You'll find the poll on the right most column. Note: You can read the explanation of each proverb before voting by clicking on the text. You can also vote multiple times so long as you allow 24hrs between votes.

The seven proverbs featured are:

- * A tree is known by its fruit.
- * Suffering is prior to attaining success or perfection.
- * Do not boast about yourself before performing an event, but after the event.
- * The Simba soccer club beat Yanga with the impact of a tsunami.
- * Unity is strength.
- * Where there's a will there's a way.
- * Patience can cook a stone.